Jackets drop 1-0 decision to Marian

Marian scored the game's only goal deep into the second half and held on to beat the Lady Jackets, 1-0, in the Cedarville Classic this past Saturday afternoon.

The Knights, 1-0-1 overall, took advantage of a loose ball following a corner kick in the 71st minute. The winning 15-yard shot went high just inside the far post.

Cedarville, 1-1, was held without a shot the entire first half. Marian ended up with a 12-5 margin in shots overall and a 5-4 edge on goal.

Freshman keeper Alysia Bennett was credited with four saves. The Knights finished with eight corner kicks while CU was not awarded any attempts.

2009 Season Outlook

The 2009 CU women's soccer team will look to build on last season's winning campaign - the program's first in the last four years. Head coach John McGillivray has plenty of reasons to believe another successful season can be produced. "There are a lot of unknowns at this point," noted McGillivray beginning his 12th year with the women's program, "But I am very optimistic."

McGillivray returns three of his top four scorers from last year's team that put 43 shots into the net. There is plenty of defensive experience back as well. "We have good leadership from our seniors and we have depth at every position - which can be a challenge for a coach," added McGillivray.

A class of six seniors will form the foundation of the 2009 squad that will seek to improve on last year's 11-8-2 mark. Co-captain Kelly Wise led the team in scoring with 14 goals and an assist. The AMC Second Team forward missed six contests toward the end of last season due to a knee injury and is still rehabbing to get to 100 percent. Three classmates are cogs in the Jacket defensive formation. Lacie Condon is back for her second year of action while four-year performers Erin Landers and Torrie Pepper provide plenty of experience. Two other seniors will be making comebacks from injuries - goalkeeper Brianne Barnes and forward Allyson Castle.

Four of the team's six juniors saw considerable action in 2008 - defenders Megan Spring and Bethany Wailes, along with forward co-captain Lindsay Raybuck and midfielder/forward Jaimie Watkins.

Topping the list of second-year performers is forward Kelsey Watkins. She was the second-leading scorer last season with 11 goals and two assists and a member of the All-AMC Third Team. Sisters Rachel and Sarah Brownfield add speed to the lineup at both forward and midfield positions. Midfielder Jill Carroll started 16 matches last fall including six as a back-up keeper.

McGillivray brings a group of eight rookies into the program. Notably, Alysia Bennett, Erica Danner and Arianna Pepper could see significant time on the field with opportunities for contributions coming from the other five freshmen as well.

"Our schedule is similar to 2008 so we feel confident of our chances to meet or exceed the 11 wins from last year," noted McGillivray. "I think realistic goals are to qualify and then get past the first round of the AMC tournament as well as participate in the NCCAA national tournament."

The 17-match schedule features nine contests on the home turf including the season opening Cedarville Classic. AMC member Houghton, as well as Mid-Central Conference members Marian and Taylor will participate. The only other non-conference home contest is against NCAA Division III Wilmington. Three challenging non-conference road trips await CU - matches at Indiana Wesleyan, Campbellsville and former AMC foe Ohio Dominican.

Cedarville will play six of their 11 American Midwest Conference tilts at home - Daemen, Notre Dame OH (Homecoming), Roberts Wesleyan, Houghton, Walsh and Mount Vernon Nazarene. AMC road matches take the team to Shawnee State, Point Park, Malone, Carlow and Ursuline.
